- c) change in capital structure;
- d) mergers, de-mergers, acquisitions, delisting, disposals and expansion of business and such other transactions;
- e) changes in key managerial personnel; and

The types of matters that would ordinarily give rise to unpublished price sensitive information have been listed above to give illustrative guidance of unpublished price sensitive information.

4. Compliance Officer

The Compliance Officer shall be responsible for:

- a) monitoring adherence to the rules for preservation of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information";
- b) issuing notifications for any modifications in the policies, procedures and rules;
- c) pre-clearing trades of Designated Persons;
- d) monitoring of trades and the implementation of the Code of Conduct under the overall supervision of the Board of Directors of the Company;
- e) Maintaining records of all the declaration(s) submitted by Insiders.
- f) Addressing any clarifications regarding the Regulations and the Company's Code of Conduct.

5. Prohibition on communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information

Insider shall not provide or allow access to any person and any person shall not procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to the company or securities listed or proposed to be listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:-

- entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the Company; or
- not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the board of directors of the company is of informed opinion that the proposed transaction is in the best interests of the company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the board of directors may determine.

However, the board of directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the purpose of furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

Following practices should be followed in this regard.

Need to know:

All information shall be handled within the organization on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his legal obligations.

Limited Access To Confidential Information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted / destroyed after its use. Paper Shredder should be used for the destruction of physical files.

6. Prohibition of Trading when in possession of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information"

An Insider shall not trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Insider shall also not trade in securities of the Company except when the Trading Window is open and is not in the possession of unpublished price sensitive information. The restrictions stated above shall not apply to:

- a) a transaction that is an off-market inter-se transfer between Promoters who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information without being in breach of these Rules and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision; and
- b) in the case of non-individual insiders: –
 - (i) the individuals who were in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information were different from the individuals taking trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such unpublished price sensitive information when they took the decision to trade; and
 - (ii) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that these regulations are not violated and no unpublished price sensitive information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;

7. Trading Window

The trading window shall be closed when the compliance officer determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates. Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the company.

The trading window shall re-open after taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than 48 hours after the information becomes generally available.

8. Pre-clearance of transactions

Designated persons and Insiders of the Company who intend to trade in the securities of the company in excess of 10,000 shares or value of which exceeds Rs 5,00,000/-, whichever is lower, in one transaction or a series of transactions over a calendar quarter, shall apply in the prescribed form as provided in Annexure 1 to the Compliance Officer for pre-clearance together with necessary undertakings along with a statement of holdings at the time of pre-clearance as prescribed in Annexure 2, provided the Designated Person or the Insider is not in possession of unpublished price sensitive information while executing the Trade.

No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance and the Compliance Officer shall not approve any proposed Trade by Designated Person if the Compliance Officer determines that such Designated Person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even though the trading window is open.

The Compliance Officer may, after being satisfied that the application and undertaking/s submitted by the Designated Person are true and accurate, approve or reject the application within two working days of the receipt of application for pre-clearance, on the condition that the Trade so approved shall be executed within seven trading days following the date of approval.

The Designated Person shall, within two days of the execution of the Trade, submit the details of such Trade to the Compliance Officer as per Annexure 3. In case the transaction is not undertaken, a report to that effect shall be filed in the said form.

If the pre-cleared Trade is not executed within seven trading days after the approval is given, the Designated Person must secure pre-clearance of the transaction again.

A Designated Person who trades in securities without complying with the preclearance procedure as envisaged in these Rules or gives false undertakings and/or makes misrepresentations in the undertakings executed by him/her while complying with the preclearance procedure shall be subjected to the penalties as envisaged in these Rules.

Nothing in this rule shall apply to any Trade involving a value less than Rs 5 Lakhs or such other amount as may be specified by the Board of Directors from time to time provided the Designated Person is not in possession of UPSI while executing that Trade.

9. Trading plan

- a) A Designated Person shall be entitled to formulate a Trading Plan that complies with the SEBI Regulations (a "Trading Plan") and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which Trades may be carried out in his behalf in accordance with such plan.
- b) The Compliance Officer shall review and approve the Trading Plan if it complies with the SEBI Regulations and shall disclose the Trading Plan to the stock exchanges.

- c) The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Designated Person shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the Trading Plan. However, the implementation of the Trading Plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Designated Person is in possession of UPSI and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Trading Plan shall be deferred until such UPSI becomes generally available information. Further, the Designated Person shall also not be allowed to Trade in securities of the Company, if the date of Trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

10. Additional trading restrictions on Designated Persons;

All Designated Persons who Trade in the securities of the company shall not enter into an opposite transaction during the next six months following the prior transaction. In case of any contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI.

11. Disclosures of Trading required to be furnished by Insiders

Every public disclosure by the Insider shall be made in such form as may be specified or notified by SEBI from time to time. The disclosures to be made by any person shall include those relating to trading by such person's immediate relatives, and by any other person for whom such person takes trading decisions. The disclosures of trading in securities shall also include trading in derivatives of securities and the traded value of the derivatives shall be taken into account for purposes of this Code.

The disclosures made under this Code shall be maintained for a minimum period of five years.

Initial Disclosures:

- a) Every promoter, key managerial personnel and director of the company shall within thirty days of these regulations taking effect (i.e., 14 May 2015) disclose to the company the details of holdings of securities of the company, including that of their immediate relatives as on the date of these regulations taking effect (i.e., 14 May 2015) in Form A: Annexure 4;
- b) Every person on appointment as a key managerial personnel or a director of the company or upon becoming a promoter shall disclose his/her holdings of securities of the company, including that of their immediate relatives as on the date of appointment or becoming a promoter, to the company within seven days of such appointment or becoming a promoter in Form B: Annexure 5.

Continual Disclosures:

- a) Every promoter, employee and director of the company shall disclose to the company on a continuing basis in Form C: Annexure 6, the total number of such securities acquired or disposed of within two trading days of such transaction if the value of the securities traded, whether in one transaction or a series of transactions over any calendar quarter, of him/her and his/her immediate relatives, from the last disclosure made, aggregates to a traded value in excess of Rs 10,00,000/-.

The disclosure shall be made within two working days of:

- i. The receipt of intimation of allotment of shares, or
 - ii. The acquisition or sale of shares or voting rights, as the case may be.
- b) The Compliance Officer shall within two trading days of receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information shall disclose the particulars of such trading to the stock exchanges.

12. Principles of fair disclosure with respect to unpublished price sensitive information

A code of practices and procedures for fair disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information (UPSI) for adhering each of the principles is set out below:

- a) The Company shall ensure prompt public disclosure of UPSI that would impact price discovery no sooner than credible and concrete information comes into being in order to make such information generally available.
- b) The Company shall make uniform and universal dissemination of unpublished price sensitive unpublished price sensitive information to avoid selective disclosure.
- c) The Company Secretary of the Company shall act as the Chief Investor Relations Officer for the purpose of aforesaid SEBI Regulation and for dealing with dissemination of information and disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information. In the absence of the Company Secretary, Chief Financial Officer or such other officer, as may be authorized by the Board in this regard, shall act as the Chief Investor Relations Officer.
- d) The Company Secretary shall promptly disseminate the UPSI that gets disclosed selectively, inadvertently or otherwise to make such information generally available, as soon as she comes to know of it.
- e) The Company shall ensure appropriate and fair response to queries on news reports and requests for verification of market rumors by regulatory authorities.
- f) The Company shall ensure that information, if any, shared with analysts, research personnel, Institutional Investors is not UPSI.
- g) The Company shall develop best practices to make transcripts or records of proceedings of meetings with analysts and other investor relations conferences on the official website to ensure official confirmation and documentation of disclosures made.
- h) The Company shall handle all UPSI on a need-to-know basis.

Sharing of UPSI for Legitimate Purposes:

The sharing of UPSI by an Insider shall be deemed to be for "Legitimate Purpose" if it satisfies the following criteria:

- a) The UPSI shall be shared only on 'need to know' basis.
- b) Such sharing of UPSI shall be in the ordinary course of business such as performance of duties, discharge of legal obligations, etc. with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of the SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations as well as this Code. Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a "legitimate purpose" shall be considered an "insider" for purposes of SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 and such persons are also required to ensure the confidentiality of unpublished price sensitive information shared with them, in compliance with SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015.

13. Norms for installation of Chinese wall procedures to control the flow of information and to prevent the misuse of confidential information.

The following departments/units/heads are treated as separate areas for the purpose of Chinese Wall procedures:

- a) Finance & Accounts;
- b) Heads of Unit;
- c) Marketing/Purchases.

The employees in the respective areas shall not communicate any price sensitive information to the other areas. In exceptional circumstances the employees in the restricted areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "need to know" criteria, under intimation to the Compliance Officer.

14. Maintenance Of Structured Digital Database

- a) The Company shall maintain a structured digital database containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared under this code read with PIT Regulations, along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available.
- b) The said digital database shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

15. Penalty/Punishment For Contravention of Code

An Insider who acts in contravention of these Rules shall be liable to have his services or relationship with the Company, as the case may be, terminated.

Any director, officer, designated person and all connected persons of the company who trades in securities of the company or communicates any information enabling the trading in securities of the company, in violation/contravention of this code shall be held guilty and penalized and appropriate action shall be taken by the Company, which may include wage freeze, suspension, ineligibility for future participation in employee stock option plans, withholding of promotion, termination of the employment/contract, or such other action as the Company may in this regard deem fit.

The penal action taken by the Company shall not preclude SEBI from taking any action in case of violation of the Insider Trading Regulations.

16. Role of Compliance Officer in prevention of Insider Trading.

The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors/ Stakeholders Committee / Audit Committee (by whatever name called), the changes in Designated Persons, the details of trading plans received, pre-clearance given and / or any violation of the PIT Regulations reported.

The Compliance Officer shall maintain a record of the Designated Persons and any changes made in the list of Designated Persons
